■ Repartimiento/Compartiment de Cerdeña

The Compartiment de Sardenya is a document written in Catalan language, which dates back to 1358 and is still preserved in the Archives of the Crown of Aragon in Barcelona.

A copy was made of the pages of the document concerning Gallura, which is currently preserved in the State Archives of Cagliari (Fig. 1).

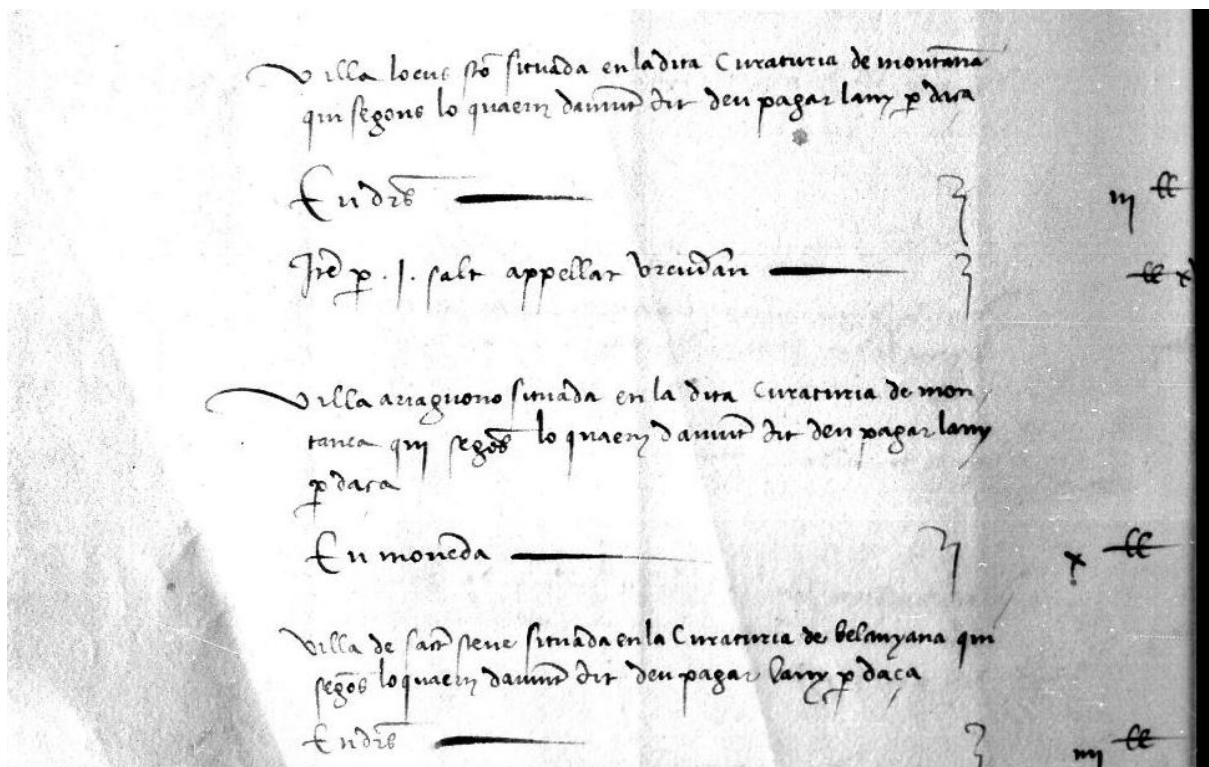

Fig. 1 - A piece of the document that is part of the register containing provisions by the Giudicati of Gallura and Arborea (ASC, Antico Archivio Regio, reg. F1, f. 25) where the villages of Locus Sancto, Ariaguono and Sant Steve appear (from http://www.archivioistatocagliari.it:443/patrimonioarchivio/immagine.html?open=F44010901_S&t=UA&pg=1&idp=2112&typ=s&doc=00000063.Jpg&scegliImm=vai).

This is a survey of the rents paid by all the villages owned by the Crown of Aragon in Sardinia at the time of its drafting, in order to understand the ability to pay of all the Sardinian holdings.

It was written after the first parliament (1355) and was ordered by Peter IV the Ceremonious (fig 2) after an explicit request from the local population.

Ramon de Vilanova, in charge of compiling the register, used previous Pisan inventories as his sources, containing the list of villages with the related income tax levied by the Tuscan city in the Island. In addition, for the district of Gallura, the writer used the figures recorded by the notary Joan Fallit in the period August-October 1324.

The Compartment represents a major source for reconstructing the history of Gallura during the fourteenth century and was published in 1856 by Próspero de Bofarull y Mascaro in the eleventh volume of the Colección de Documentos Ineditos (CODOIN), together with the documentation concerning the kingdoms of Mallorca and Valencia, with the more comprehensive title of Repartimientos de los Reinos de Mallorca, Valencia y Cerdeña (fig. 3).
